Successful summer wraps up for Greenwood Cadets

The flag party marches off.
Corporal J.Kusche, 14 Wing Imaging

Second Lieutenant
Derek Reid,
RCSU(A) Public Affairs

With the lowering and handing over of the Air Cadet flag to Acting Wing Chief Warrant Officer Lise Ward for safe keeping until next year, Cadet summer camp came to an end with a graduation parade August 16.

More than 1,000 Cadets underwent training at the Greenwood Air Cadet Summer Training Centre over the course of six weeks. On parade were over 5,00 of Atlantic Canada's best and brightest youth, who formed 19 flights of course Cadets, in addition to the band and staff Cadets.

The large group of supporters who turned out for the event was treated to outstanding music on the move by the GACSTC band, including fan favorites "Crazy in Love" by Beyoncé and "Sweet Caroline" by Neal Diamond. The 34 members of the band spent the summer improving their skills and were able to participate in events such as the Annapolis Valley Exhibition and Natal Day parades.

Commanding Officer of GACSTC, Lieutenant-Colonel Bernice McKenzie, took advantage of the opportunity to remind parents the Cadets now know how to get up early, make their beds and iron their clothes.

"Don't let them off the hook," she said with a grin. "I want to see they still have those skills when I get them back next summer."

New storage compound for long-term use

Sara Keddy,
Managing editor

The compound used by 14 Wing Greenwood personnel as a place to store their RV or boat for the winter is on the move.

As of September 3, the space, to the west side of Ad Astra Way, will close to general storage and make way for an enhanced training ground for 14 Wing Fire and Protective Services. The fire department already has a fire tower and a number of old vehicles on site, but a new propane simulator will soon be in place, increasing training scenarios for its personnel.

Major Stephen Button, wing

Construction Engineering officer says people who have RVs, vehicles — there is even a sail boat, will have to move them. The Military Police office will sign out the site key to people needing to make the move; people who may be planning to return their RVs, say, after the summer's use will be directed to the new compound, located on the west side of Thunderbird Way, on the way to the Greenwood Golf Course.

The new compound will be managed by the 14 Wing Greenwood Community Centre. People interested in renting space in the facility should contact 765-1494 local 5331.

CAV unit honours veteran dispatch riders

Darren Williams,
2 Canadian Army Veterans

August 17, the Canadian Army Veterans (Fortress Europe Greenwood) motorcycle unit honoured its heritage by paying a visit to the Soldiers Memorial Hospital Veterans Wing in order to welcome three new members to its organization.

The CAV in recent years came up with a directive to honour its traditions by making any military dispatch rider veteran or Silver Cross family honorary members to the organization. Fortress Europe discovered they had four such possible recipients at the vets wing, and member Rob "Matrix" Gallant set about organizing a presentation event.

After some investigation, CAV members were proud to present Pearlle Whynott, George Reeves and Emery Pothier with their vests and a shadow box bearing their gold trimmed (for special honorary members) CAV crests depicting a Second World War dispatch rider as its logo, their names, unit

Submitted

(Fortress Europe) and decoration badges. Ken Mahar's family will be presented his shadow box at a later date posthumously (Ken passed away during the investigation).

Old Guard member Darren

Williams says CAV wanted to honour those who came before, and respect common heritage.

"By cresting these men, we will always remember the sacrifices of our veterans and make sure they will never be forgotten. We call all those who served our brothers, but these men will have a little special place in our hearts as not only veterans but also members of the CAV."

After the cresting ceremony, members of the CAV from Greenwood and Halifax, along with other veteran bikers and friends, with the help of the facility's staff, served a cold lunch generously sponsored by Greenwood Sobeys.

for their hard work with Top Cadet awards being given out for each flight, as well as ANA-VETs medals for the six-week course Cadets and awards for the Most Improved Band Cadet and Effective Speaking competitions. Eight Cadets earned their Private Pilot Licenses over the summer, and were thrilled to have their power wings presented to them by two current Canadian Armed Forces pilots, reviewing officer Lieutenant-Colonel Christopher England, commanding officer of 431 Squadron (the Snowbirds), and 14 Wing Greenwood Commander Colonel Iain Huddleston.

As the Cadets head back to their home squadrons and communities, they take with them leadership and citizenship skills developed over the summer.

Greenwood Air Cadet Summer Training Centre Commanding Officer Lieutenant-Colonel Bernice McKenzie congratulates Leah Sheppard on a job well done as Warrant Officer First Class, the top Cadet job at camp.

Aldershot handover an exchange of the 'unique'

Sara Keddy,
Managing editor

Unexpected, out-of-the-ordinary, complex and unique are just a few of the words various leaders used to describe work and life at Camp Aldershot, the 5th Canadian Division's Training Centre Detachment in North Kentville.

Major Troy Kennedy turned over command of the camp to Major Brent Kerr August 22, a "bittersweet moment because I'm giving up something I care about very deeply, I've put a lot of myself into in – it's my family."

Kennedy, whose father grew up in nearby Sheffield Mills, whose family lived later in Granville Ferry, who attended Acadia University and actually began his military career at Camp Aldershot as a member of the West Nova Scotia Regiment; said the opportunity to come "home" and command the camp was a "dream come true."

"And then, it's kind of like a dog chasing a car – when he catches it, what does he do with it?"

Kennedy said getting to know the internal workings and overall responsibilities of the camp is complicated. With a small number of people, meeting the training needs of soldiers, RCMP, Coast Guard, Reserve forces, international military units and many others who are lodgers at the camp's facilities is "an incredible amount of work."

"And we've been very successful."

Kennedy was particularly proud of the profile the camp has built through partnerships with its surrounding community, and projects close to Valley hearts. In 2012, the Town of Kentville gave soldiers at the camp freedom of the town in a ceremonial parade. Through his three-and-a-half years as CO, the Aldershot team helped raise over $120,000 for the Valley Regional Health Foundation, just one of many charities it supports.

Colonel George Thomson, commander of 36 Canadian Brigade Group, recently left Aldershot from his post as CO of the WNSR. He served with Kennedy years before, and both arrived at Aldershot at the same time in their respective commands. He presented Kennedy a coin in appreciation of his service to both the WNSR and 36 Brigade.

Reviewing officer Lieutenant-Colonel Julian Richard, 5 Canadian Division Training Centre commanding officer, acknowledged Aldershot's "special" place in the Army.

"This is unique: it's a remote from Gagetown, the officer commanding wears a double hat of managing the camp of Regular and Reserve employees, plus civilians and contractors and more – all kinds of issues not commonly found in a sub-unit. And then, on top of that, a hot air balloon lands in the range training area (which recently happened)."

Kerr, who admitted to having no local roots similar to Kennedy's and having grown up in a small town on the Don River – Toronto; said the Canadian Army's mission is the same anywhere: "support individual and team training in a complex environment.

"It's the strategic corporal, the intelligent NCO, the driven officer who will win.

Next is ethics, and that is where our core has to be. If we lose the confidence of the people of Canada, we are lost. We have a strong team, and it is always service before self."

Squash season just ahead

Don Lacroix,
Greenwood Squash Club

The Greenwood ZX Squash Club hopes you're enjoying the last of summer. Club members will be at Wing Wel-come September 7, between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. to get set for the new season as fall gets underway.

For those of you who don't know, squash is a great sport for getting into and staying in shape - a great cardio workout, with flexibility, hand eye co-ordination - and fun! The sport is for everyone, from the superfit to people of all ages and abilities: our membership boasts some of the best players in the province, including youth, every day moms and even a few grandparents and great-grandparents!

Youth and ladies night programs really took off last year, with the highest participation in years. With new junior rackets donated by Squash Nova Scotia, we'll continue to expand our program this year. We don't have any professional coaches, but club members have heart and want to give their time to kids and novice players. Thanks to Ross Francis, Nick Woods and a few others. We also had Janet McLeod coming out last season and running clinics for our juniors and a "ladies' only" clinic, all well received. If you feel like a little fun competition, we also have a league night schedule here in Greenwood and in Kentville. Our aim is to get people hooked on squash - not very hard, once you try it. From now until the end of Sep-tember Don, Ryan, Catherine and Ross will be at the courts in the 14 Wing Greenwood Fitness & Sports Centre Thursday evenings to give free, introductory lessons to anyone who wants to try the sport. Or, give Don a call at 341-2249 and book a time for a little one on one.

At CentreStage

What comes before marriage? Murder, at least according to Lord Arthur Savile. Shortly before his marriage to the lovely Sybil Merton, Lord Arthur, a well-intentioned but gullible British aristocrat, learns murder is definitely in his future while hosting a palm reading session in his London drawing room. Feeling duty-bound to get the foretold event over with, he plots to carry out the deed with the help of his butler, Baines, and bungling anarchist Winkelkopf. A series of blunders and misunderstandings follow and double entendres abound in this witty stage adaptation of Oscar Wilde's short story. Not recommended for children under 13. Lord Arthur Savile's Crime plays September 13, 14, 20, 21, 27, 28, 29; October 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 18, 19. Showtime 8 p.m./ 2 p.m. matinee September 29 and October 6. Tickets $15/ $12 (678-8040 for reservations). CentreStage Theatre: 61 River Street, Kentville; www.centrestagetheatre.ca.

Minor Basketball volunteers needed

Greenwood Minor Basketball is in dire need of volunteers and executive members.

Like all clubs, the success of each season is a direct result of the willingness of volunteers who help support the program. This is a wonderful opportunity for a military member who is looking for a secondary duty, or simply giving back to a sport.

If you have any interest in working with GMB, and ensuring this worthwhile program continues, please contact Warrant Officer Alain Chali-foux, president of Greenwood Minor Basketball, 765-1494 local 3399.

Basketball mineur besoin de bénévoles

L'organisation du basketball mineur de Greenwood a grandement besoin de bénévoles et de membres exécutifs.

Comme pour tous les clubs, le succès de chaque saison dépend directement de la volonté des bénévoles qui contribuent à soutenir le programme. Il s'agit là d'une merveilleuse occasion pour un militaire qui cherche une tâche secondaire ou qui souhaite simplement contribuer à l'essor du sport.

Si vous êtes intéressé un tant soit peu à travailler auprès de l'organisation du basketball mineur de Greenwood et à voir à ce que les activités de ce programme qui en vaut la peine se poursuivent, prière de communiquer avec le Adj Alain Chalifoux, président du basketball mineur de Greenwood, au 765-1494 poste 3399.

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

horoscopes

Sept 1 - Sept 7

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20
Aries, no matter how hard you work, you just cannot seem to get ahead this week. Instead of tiring yourself unnecessarily, take a break and regroup.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21
Taurus, although you have many questions, the answers will not come so easily to you in the next few days. Bide your time for a revelation.

GEMINI - May 22/Jun 21
It will be really difficult to put you in a bad mood this week, Gemini. Your energy and cheer will be a bright light to those around you, so enjoy the next few days.

CANCER - Jun 22/Jul 22
Cancer, you may want to be friends with everyone, but you may have to accept that you have a few people who just do not meld with your interests. Hang out with those who do.

LEO - Jul 23/Aug 23
Exercise can do more than just keep you physically fit, Leo. It also can help boost your mood when you need a pick-me-up, which could be the case in the near future.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22
Virgo, each time you think the grass will be greener somewhere else, you quickly learn it is not the case. Learn to appreciate what you have, and you will be glad for having done so.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23
Libra, generosity will endear you to others, but you have to be generous for the right reasons. It's not a good idea to build friendships on false pretences.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22
Scorpio, avoid taking on any more projects for the time being. Although you excel in tackling things, even the best of us need a rest from time to time.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21
Sagittarius, you will have to buckle down and get some things done at work, even if you are a little under the weather. Take things nice and easy once your work is done.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20
Capricorn, devoting time to a spouse or children is of the utmost importance this week, while other matters will have to wait. Enjoy this opportunity to spend time with your loved ones.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18
Aquarius, a hectic schedule is compromising your ability to stay focused on the tasks at hand. You may need some help sorting some things out.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20
There are enough diversions around to take your mind off of your problems, Pisces. They may not disappear, but you can address some issues later.

14 Wing Library | Serving those who read

Judy McCool
& Joanne Sealby,
14 Wing Greenwood Library

14 Wing Greenwood Library staff and volunteers welcome all those who were posted in to Greenwood this summer. We hope you are settling in to the beautiful Annapolis Valley and will drop in and check out your library soon, located in the Morfee Centre building on School Road.

A library membership is required but is free of charge to those who have a current Community Recreation Pass. For those without a pass, a family membership is $11.75 for one year. A single membership is $5.50. Military families who want to open a library account should send the military member in with their PLCC card to have it signed. We wish to remind current members annual membership fees are coming due, and we are only able to accept payment by cash or cheque.

The library offers a very nice selection of fiction, non fiction and children's books in both English and French. Our DVD and audio book section continues to grow, as well as our selection of new bestsellers - some of which have been provided by the Friends of the Greenwood Library Association.

We will be having a special display at our table at the Wing Welcome Rexpo September 7. Why not drop by and see how the library staff "Discovers their Adventure" this year. Yabba dabba do!

A "harvest of books" is now on our display table, with several of the bestsellers from 2013. One of these is "The English Girl" by Daniel Silva: a beautiful woman is snatched from her vacation on Corsica. A ransom note reaches 10 Downing Street. An ambitious, unfaithful prime minister seriously needs a fixer. Which leads his fixers to art restorer and Israeli spy Gabriel Allon, one of the more believable and likable heroes in recent spy fiction. To call "The English Girl" a page turner is an oversimplification. Smart, unpredictable and packed with bits of history, art, heart and imagination, this is a page turner to be savored.

You will also find Khaled Hosseini's "And the Mountains Echoed," which begins simply enough with a father recounting a folktale to his two young children. The tale is about a young boy who is taken by a div (a sort of ogre), and how that fate might not be as terrible as it first seems - a brilliant device that firmly sets the tone for the rest of this sweeping, heartbreaking and ultimately uplifting novel. A day after he tells the tale of the div, the father gives away his own daughter to a wealthy man in Kabul. What follows is a series of stories within the story, told through multiple viewpoints, spanning more than half a century and shifting across continents.

JK Rowling, known for her "Harry Potter" children's books, has written an adult book, "Casual Vacancy". It is a complete joy to read, a stunning, brilliant, outrageously gripping and entertaining evocation of British society today.

A "heads up" notice the Friends of the Greenwood Library will be having their big book, craft and bake sale September 26 to 28 in the gym at the Military Family Resource Centre. Anyone wishing to donate books, crafts or baking, please contact Joyce Hazelwood at 765-3143, or the library at 765-1494 local 5430. This is a major fundraising event, so please give the friends your support.

Events beginning at the library for the fall and winter include a knitting group Monday evenings, a Tuesday morning Story Tree for pre-schoolers and a Wednesday night book club. (During September, the library will be closed Wednesday evenings. Regular library hours will resume in October. We apologize for any inconvenience.)

Reading opens doors... come and open the doors to 14 Wing Library!

Bibliothèque de la 14<sup>e</sup> Escadre | Au service des lecteurs

Judy McCool
et Joanne Sealby
Bibliothèque de la 14<sup>e</sup> Escadre

Le personnel et les bénévoles de la bibliothèque de la 14<sup>e</sup> Escadre souhaitent la bienvenue à tous ceux qui ont été affectés à Greenwood cet été. Nous espérons que vous êtes bien installés dans la superbe vallée de l'Annapolis et que vous ne tarderez pas à visiter la bibliothèque, qui est située au Centre AVM Morfee, sur le chemin School.

Une carte de membre est requise, mais vous pouvez l'obtenir sans frais si vous êtes détenteur d'un laissez-passer récréatif. Si vous n'avez pas de laissez-passer, un abonnement pour une famille coûte 11,75 $ par année. Une carte individuelle coûte 5,50 $. Le membre militaire d'une famille désireuse d'ouvrir un compte à la bibliothèque devrait présenter sa carte CRPD afin de la faire signer. Nous soulignons aux membres actuels qu'il sera bientôt le temps de payer les frais d'abonnement annuels et que nous n'acceptons que les paiements en argent comptant ou par chèque.

La bibliothèque offre un grand choix de livres de fiction, d'ouvrages documentaires et de livres pour enfants, en français et en anglais. Notre section de DVD et de livres audio est de plus en plus garnie et notre collection de livres à succès est plus vaste, notamment grâce au don des Amis de la société de la bibliothèque de Greenwood.

Nous organiserons une présentation spéciale lors de la tenue de l'expo « Bienvenue à l'Escadre », qui aura lieu le 7 septembre. Passez nous voir pour découvrir comment le personnel de la bibliothèque entend « se lancer dans une aventure » cette année. Yabba dabba do!

Une belle « récolte de livres » est en ce moment sur notre table de présentation, et vous y trouverez plusieurs livres à succès de 2013. L'un d'eux est The English Girl de Daniel Silva (en anglais) : une femme magnifique est enlevée durant ses vacances en Corse. Une demande de rançon parvient au 10 Downing Street. Le premier ministre, homme ambitieux et infidèle, a grandement besoin d'un entremetteur, qui mènera ses entremetteurs à un restaurateur d'objets d'art et à l'espion israélien, Gabriel Allon, l'un des héros les plus crédibles et aimables de la littérature d'espionnage récente. Dire que ce roman est captivant ne rendrait pas justice à l'auteur. Cette histoire intelligente, imprévisible, touchante et remplie de références à l'histoire et à l'art frappera votre imagination et vous tiendra en haleine à coup sûr.

Vous trouverez également le livre de Khaled Hosseini, And the Mountains Echoed (en anglais), dont l'histoire commence simplement par le récit d'un conte populaire que fait un père à ses deux jeunes enfants. Le conte porte sur un jeune garçon qui est capturé par un div (un genre d'ogre) et sur son destin, qui n'est peut-être pas aussi terrible qu'on l'aurait cru au départ. Ce procédé brillant donne le ton au reste de ce grand roman, qui bien que déchirant, saura à la fin inspirer les lecteurs. Une journée après le récit de son conte, le père donne sa fille à un homme riche de Kaboul. S'ensuit une série d'histoires comprises à l'intérieur de l'histoire principale, racontées selon de nombreux points de vue, et qui s'étendent sur plus d'un demi-siècle et sur plusieurs continents.

Pour sa part, JK Rowling, connue pour ses livres pour enfants Harry Potter, a cette fois écrit un livre pour adultes, Une Place à prendre (en anglais, Casual Vacancy). Ce roman est très plaisant à lire et présente la société britannique d'aujourd'hui d'une façon étonnante, brillante, palpitante et divertissante.

Prière de noter que les Amis de la société de la bibliothèque de Greenwood tiendront une grande vente de livres, de pâtisseries et d'objets d'artisanat dans le gymnase du Centre de ressources pour les familles des militaires, du 26 au 28 septembre. Si vous voulez faire un don de livres, d'objets d'artisanat ou de pâtisseries, communiquez avec Joyce Hazelwood, au 765-3143, ou appelez à la bibliothèque, au 765-1494, poste 5430.

Cette campagne de financement est très importante alors venez soutenir les Amis.

Du nombre des activités qui seront présentées à la bibliothèque cet automne et cet hiver, il y a un groupe de tricot le lundi soir, une matinée de conte pour les enfants d'âge préscolaire le mardi et un club de lecture le mercredi soir. (En septembre, la bibliothèque sera fermée les mercredis soirs. À compter d'octobre, la bibliothèque sera ouverte selon l'horaire régulier. Nous nous excusons de tout désagrément.)

La lecture ouvre des portes, alors venez ouvrir les portes de la bibliothèque de la 14<sup>e</sup> Escadre!

Greenwood men second at Atlantics

Master Corporal
Ed Chipman

August 20 to 23, 14 Wing Greenwood hosted the Atlantic men's soccer regionals, with CFB Gagetown and CFB Halifax/ 12 Wing Shearwater (last year's regional champs) in the field.

In the first game, Greenwood versus Halifax, the score ended in a 2-2 draw. Halifax then lost out to Gagetown 0-2, and there was another draw – a 0-0 finish – in the Gagetown vs Greenwood match-up. Greenwood defeated Halifax 2-1, Gagetown had the same 2-1 score in a second match with Halifax, and took a final 1-0 win over Greenwood.

Finals were played on the Friday morning between CFB Gagetown and the host team, representing 14 Wing. A hard fought battle ended with a final score of 3-0 in Gagetown's favour.

CFB Gagetown will now represent the Atlantic region at the 2013 national soccer championships at CFB Borden in Ontario September 7 to 13. The team selected three pick-ups from the two other regional teams: Greenwood's team captain, Master Corporal Ed (Chippy) Chipman, and two others from the Halifax team.
