I have just experienced our Air Force operations in aid of the people of Haiti, and viewed the final air component preparations for the Olympics in support of the RCMP.

Such a short time ago we were telling our people, 'Enjoy the holidays with our families, and when we come back, we will be focused on getting ready for the Olympics. With Afghanistan and training, things should be busy for us in the coming months.' Then tragedy takes place in Haiti and we must act. In a matter of hours, our people, and our families commit to help save lives and heal the wounds caused by this devastation. And 'busy' was redefined.

I share with you just one example of your commitment, from Op Hestia. Due to the amount of international aid coming into Port-au-Prince, the airport was so congested that Canada had just four time slots per day to land and deliver supplies. We needed an additional entry point into Haiti. Our airfield engineers assessed the Jacmel airfield, and with confidence in the capabilities of the Hercules, and the experience of our personnel, we took the risk of the first Hercules flight into this tiny airstrip in the hills. Less than 24 hours later, your Air Force had opened a strategic 'backdoor' to deliver more aid to the Haitian people, and equipping the DART and the field hospital.

Wherever you work, whether in the Division, within the Air Force or within the Forces, you are helping carry the workload of a nation both at peace and at war. Your Wing, and every Wing, is executing an impressive scope of missions each and every day. You are stretched, but you are doing as much as you can and delivering results, showing your professionalism and your dedication.

Your work is impressive, and I thank you, and your families, for what you are doing for Canadians, for Haitians, for Afghans, for sailors on the high seas, and for so many other people in need.

a Force aérienne se montre à la hauteur

aérienne organisées pour aider le peuple haïtien et d'examiner les préparatifs finaux de la composante aérienne qui appuiera la GRC dans le contexte des Jeux Olympiques.

Il y a bien peu de temps, nous disions à notre personnel : « Profitez du temps des Fêtes avec vos familles et, en revenant des vacances, nous nous concentrerons sur les préparatifs des Olympiques. Entre l'Afghanistan et l'instruction, nous devrions être bien occupés pendant les prochains mois. » Puis, la tragédie a frappé Haïti, nous exhortant à agir. En quelques heures, nos militaires et nos familles se sont engagés pour aider à sauver des vies et à remettre les gens sur pied à la suite de la dévastation. Et il a fallu réévaluer ce qu'on entendait par le mot « occupés ».

Je veux vous transmettre un exemple de votre dévouement,

Je viens de voir de première main les opérations de la Force tiré de l'Op Hestia. Vu la quantité d'aide internationale affluant à Port-au-Prince, l'aéroport était tellement congestionné que le Canada n'avait que quatre créneaux de temps par jour pour poser ses aéronefs et livrer ses approvisionnements. Nous avions besoin d'un autre point d'entrée en Haïti. Après que notre équipe de génie de l'air eut évalué l'aérodrome de Jacmel, et connaissant les capacités des Hercules et de notre personnel expérimenté, nous avons tenté un premier vol à destination de cette minuscule bande d'atterrissage dans les collines. Moins de 24 heures plus tard, la Force aérienne du Canada avait ouvert une « porte arrière » stratégique pour fournir d'avantage d'aide au peuple haïtien et pour approvisionner l'Équipe d'intervention en cas de catastrophe (EICC) et l'hôpital de campagne.

Peu importe où vous travaillez, que ce soit à la Division, dans la Force aérienne ou dans les Forces canadiennes, vous mettez l'épaule à la roue pour assumer la charge de travail du pays, en temps de paix comme en temps de guerre. Toutes les escadres, y compris la vôtre, réalisent une gamme impressionnante de missions chaque jour. On vous en demande beaucoup, mais vous faites votre possible et vous accomplissez ce qu'on attend de vous, ce qui témoigne de votre professionnalisme et de votre dévouement

Vos réalisations sont impressionnantes et je vous remercie, vous et vos familles, de ce que vous faites pour les Canadiens, les Haïtiens, les Afghans, les matelots en haute mer, et pour tant d'autres gens qui sont dans le besoin.

Wing Commander Holds Town Hall Meetings

By Captain Scott Spurr

The Wing Commander, Colonel Bill Seymour held a series of town hall meetings for the personnel of the Base on Wednesday and Thursday (January 27-28, 2010) to outline the way ahead for the Wing's Strategic Campaign Plan (SCP). The SCP includes numerous subjects such as the Lines of Operation and Strategic Initiatives for the Wing.

These meetings are an annual occurrence and an opportunity for the Wing Commander to communicate directly to his personnel on what he and the Air Force as a hold would like to achieve. The initiatives for the Wing centre on its Mission and Vision which are:

Our Mission:

To conduct airborne Intelligence, surveillance, reconnaissance and control (ISR&C), rescue and transport and to deliver operational support for Canada's Defence Mission.

Our Vision:

To be Canada's leader in developing and applying air power for airborne ISR&C. rescue and transport in global, joint and combined operations.

The entire Wing plays a part (both military and civilian personnel) in achieving the mission and using their collective capabilities ensures airpower for the East Coast of Canada.

14 Wing has a proud history of striving for continuous improvement and being innovated to achieve the Vision of the Wing and in order to do this the Base must have clear goals, commitment and resources

The SCP provides the Wing with a way ahead which allows it to achieve its goals and is made up of seven lines of operation (LOO) which are then sub-divided into Strategic Initiatives. The seven LOO's are as follows:

678 Central Ave, Greenwood

Lines of Operation:

- 1. Conduct Search and Rescue Operations
- 2. Conduct Intelligence, Surveillance, Reconnaissance and Control
- 3. Develop ISR&C Capability and Conduct Operational Test and Evaluation
- 4. Provide Support to Canadian Forces Operations
- 5. Improve Quick Reactionary
- 6. Conduct Training 7. Main Operating Base
- The key strength for the Wing is its personnel, which is reflected in its motto: Operate as One. By working together, the dedicated professional people of the Wing can achieve anything they set their minds too. While the SCP is challenging, the Wing Commander felt that by working together as a well oiled machine that significant progress will be made in the near future to achieve the mission and vision of the Wing.

14 Wing Commander, Colonel Bill Seymour holds up the brochure that was handed out to the members of 14 Wing during his Town Hall briefing. 14 Wing Chief Warrant Officer Jim Jardine watches intently.

We would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our families and friends for their many kind expressions of sympathy and support shown to us during this difficult time.

Thank you to everyone who visited, sent food, flowers, cards, e-mails, charitable donations and telephone calls. Your expressions of condolences will be forever etched in our hearts, remembered and cherished.

Thanks to Reverend Charles Bull, Organist: Gina Potvin, Soloist: Chris Palmer, Bagpiper: Sandy Macmillan for the beautiful tribute and service. For the wonderful Words of Remembrance our thanks are extended to Greg Zwicker and Charlene Fahie. To our family and extended family that travelled such a great distance to be here for Tristan's service and provide the much needed support, our heartfelt thanks.

Our thanks also are extended to the members responsible from the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 098 in Kingston, the Royal Canadian Air Force Association (107) Valley Wing and the Christ Church (Anglican Church of Canada) in Berwick for the beautiful reception. Stephanie Hennigar and Samara Zwicker, the collage picture display was gorgeous and depicted Tristan's life beautifully Jodi Hennigar and Avery Fahie, WOW, you two were awesome; we

14 SES Bits and Bytes

By: MWO Andy Sweet

Welcome to the New Year from the Owls of 14 SES. 2010 promises to be an exciting time for the Squadron (Sqn). We are celebrating our 30th year of ASDU and 14 SES providing software support to the CP-140 operational community. Activities are being planned for August, Capt Craig Lewis is the OPI. Stay tuned for more details.

Already this year we have had four of our folks away in Ottawa participating in the CP-140 Software Support Working Group. Attendees were the DCO. Mai Middelveen, Capts Matheson and Dietert, and Henry Hoeksma.

OEMS: The Overland Equipment Mission Suite has seen intense activity at 14 SES. Our task was to develop the key component that fulfils the role of the servers, bringing all the individual OEMS systems together. Several successive versions of the ISIS software and on-aircraft laptop computers have been produced and deployed. The OEMS team went beyond their duty by providing their knowledge and expertise to solve integration issues and software bugs. A lot of effort went into integration with other components and testing to verify correctness. As a result, the OEMS aircraft are flying and are being readied for their first deployment. CDU Version 15X testing: Ground testing of the latest CDU software V15X commenced in Jan 2010. Led by PMO, the testing was a joint effort by personnel from 14 SES, MPEU, 14 AMS, and DAEPM(M). Results were positive and testing ran smoothly for the full three days. Attendees from 14 SES included John Tweedie and Sgt Madower.

We will soon be testing the new software implementation for the ARC-234 SATCOM radio and completing our preparations for First Flight Readiness Review of the first Block III aircraft. FFS: Work continues on creating airfields for OP SAIPH and some Northern Canadian locations as well. Block III: 14 SES personnel are arrival of the first major AIMP Block III deliverable around the 1st of April. (the Maintenance Procedures Trainer). Congratulations to our latest Operational Liaison and Acceptance (OLA) Staff member, WO Marty Way, on completing MOAT. WO Way is the first member to receive his flying qualification since the 14 SES OLA positions were made designated flying positions. Sgt Kevin Madower completed his orientation training and hit the ground running, recognizing and investigating an issue with the Block II Control Display Unit (CDU) that was very subtle and difficult to discover. BZ to Sgt Madower for having a keen eye for "bugs". Continuing our preparations for Block II support, the OLA section has now started receiving System Trouble Reports (STRs) from the LRP community, and is working with staff in preparing for the imminent Ottawa and Halifax to arrive at solutions to some of the problems that come with any complex system.

Congratulations to Capt Etienne Gignac-Bouchard and Lt. Denise Vidito on their recent promotions. We said farewell to Capt Sean Taylor and Sgts Doug Mallyon and Paul Gagnon who retired to the private sector, as well as Maj Chris Larson who took charge of the Block III Implementation team. Mr Ron Hill retired after an amazing 49+ years of service to Canada. Also leaving us was Debbie Cooper and returning from SICOFFA was Capt Adrian Matheson. Mrs Judy Rozee recently represented the Sqn in the Olympic Torch Relay and did us proud!

14 SES Biggest Loser contest kicked off in Mid Jan and 20 folks have signed up to get in better shape and have some fun (and maybe win some prizes too)!

Small Reserve Unit Does Big Things

By: Lt. Candace Bennett, CFB Halifax Public Affairs

It has become an annual tradition for members of 143 Construction Engineering Flight (143 ČEF) in Bridgewater, Nova Scotia to assist the local food bank and help bundle up packages and deliver them for the Christmas Daddies Campaign.

Tucked far away in the town of Bridgewater is a small Reserve Construction Engineer Flight that does really big things. The unit has developed deep ties within the community in which they serve, often providing labour and Christmas turkeys for for non profit organizations in the community. Some of their recent work includes the expansion and plumbing for the Girl Guide camp and rebuilding the numerous boardwalks along the coast that were destroyed by Hurricane Juan. The bond with the community allows a mutually beneficial relationship as it provides some much wanted on-the-job training and allows Bridgewater to continue to be a great place to live.

The Christmas Daddies Campaign started nine years ago and now delivers toys over two hundred families in the South Shore district of Liverpool to Hubbard's. Many of families who receive donations volunteer their time and work side by side with the Salvation Army, Bridgewater food bank and 143 CEF. This year was unique as two families who were former recipients of the Christmas Daddies program, are currently sponsoring a family for Christmas. "It was an embarrassing time. No one wants to be in that position, but I could not, not have Christmas. I am just glad this year I am able to give back" said one of the sponsors.

Almost half the unit was on deployment on Roto 9 in Afghanistan. They trickled in over the Christmas season and almost all were able to spend Christmas at home. Several of the members stopped by the centre to help assemble the bundles. "I always love doing Christmas Daddies and I wanted to stop by and help out. Being away makes you appreciate so much more what we have in Canada. I am just happy to help out and feel lucky that I get to be home' said Cpl Everett Currie.

Pte. Timothy Cook carries a box of supplies to a needy family in the Bridgewater area. His Unit, 143 CEF has been donating Christmas goodies in their area for the past nine years.

Blood Donor Clinic

By: Eric MacKenzie

Here's your opportunity to save lives! It is once again time to roll up your sleeves and take the time to give blood. Canadian Blood Services will now be holding two day donor clinics as a result of the support from our local communities. Let's respond and take advantage of this opportunity by filling up two full days with appointments. If we can double our one day attendance, over both days, Canadian Blood Services may be able to collect enough donations to save over a thousand lives!

The next two day donor clinics will be held at the 14 Wing Greenwood Community Centre on Tuesday February 9th and ext. 5337, and if you wish to book an appointment, please Wednesday February 10th. Donors can either give during the call 1-888-236-6283.

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. time slot or the 5:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.evening slot on Tuesday the 9th or Wednesday the 10th. If you are interested in giving blood, please ensure that you bring identification with your full name and signature or full name and photograph. New donors are welcome!

Please note that if you get a flu shot, you must wait 2 days after the shot before donating blood.

This two day clinic is made possible by the generous support from McDonald's and Tim Hortons. If you are interested in more information please call Eric MacKenzie at 765-1494

4 Wing Haiti Boot Drive

By Captain Scott Spurr
Personnel from 14 Wing Greenwood dipped into their wallets on Friday, January 29, 2010 to raise money for the relief effort in Haiti. The boot drive (using boots lent by the Fire Department) was organized by Major Luce Gilbert, (the Wing's Combined Charities Chairman) early last week and members of the Combined Charities Committee manned the Wing's gates with boots in order to collect money from members from 6:45 a.m. to 8:00 a.m. The military police were also on hand to assist and direct traffic.

What made this event even more remarkable was the fact that it was done during a raging blizzard! When all was said and done, personnel from the Wing raised over $3,000.00 for Haiti which was quite an accomplishment under the circumstances. One imaginative soul even donated some real boots for the BOOT DRIVE!

Haiti was hit by a 7.0 magnitude earthquake on January 12 of this year which caused wide spread devastation that killed hundreds of thousands of people and left millions homeless. It was the worst earthquake to hit the region in over 100 years. The international community has responded swiftly to the crisis with military personnel and aid in order to try and stabilize the situation

The international relief effort has requested people from around the world not to send clothing, etc, but to donate money instead to the various charity organizations. Enclosed is a link from the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada for anyone wishing to make a donation: http://www.international.gc.ca/ humanitarian-humanitaire/canadians help-aide canadien. aspx?lang=eng#organizations

The Wing would like to extend a big "thank you" to the Wing Fire Chief, Chief Warrant Officer Ochitwa for the boots and Master Warrant Officer Chubbs and the military police for their assistance and finally to the personnel of the Base for their tremendous generosity!

Members of the 14 Wing Combined Charities Committee pose for a group photo inside Wing Headquarters after raising over $2500 during the Boot Drive that took place on Friday, January 29. ## Filling All Your Antifreeze Needs

Steve Boutilier, Service ravages of rust and Manager for Canadian Tire, Greenwood says, the #1 Antifreeze/coolant in North America and the Official antifreeze of NASCAR, Prestone Antifreeze/coolant provides maximum freezeup and boil over protection (from -84° to +276° F) for cooling systems in automobiles and light duty trucks. Prestone Antifreeze/ coolant's patented Dual Action Formula uses high quality inhibitors to protect against the corrosion to all cooling system metals, including the thin aluminum radiators found in today's new vehicles.

Use a mix of 50% to 70% Prestone Antifreeze/ coolant and water for outstanding protection. Optimum change intervals - Once per year to provide unsurpassed protection.

Steve explains, that unlike engine cooling system antifreeze products, Prestone RV Antifreeze is specially formulated for winterizing all types of potable water systems, such as those found in vacation homes, boats, RV's as well as swimming pools and heating systems. This propylene glycol-based antifreeze enables users to prevent water supply pipes from suffering bust damage down to - 50°F, while protecting against the build up of rust and corrosion. The nonpermanent-staining pink colour indicates that it is in the system. Steve reminds motorists when you are ready to use the water system, just flush out until the water runs clear.

Ideal for winterizing all types of portable water plumbing systems. Use undiluted. Optimum change interval -Winterize annually.

For more information contact Steve and his staff at the Greenwood Canadian Tire store.

More Medals for Greenwood Skaters

As promised, it is always fun to report on our skaters successes! Last weekend, 5 of our best skated at the annual Rob McCall Memorial in Dartmouth and all 5 brought home hardware. On Friday, James Hazelton and Meghan Breckon started things off with Gold and Bronze respectively in their short programs. On Saturday, Alex Robert kicked off the day with great performance of his James Bond program and captured Gold. Later in the day, Meghan followed up with another Bronze with an almost perfect skate in Junior Silver Ladies. Jenna Breckon, who was 8th out of 15 in the short program, came back strong in the Pre-Novice Long and finished with a best ever score and a Bronze medal...3rd out of 23 skaters! James repeated with a Gold in the Novice men's long program on Saturday night and on Sunday, Erika Rice followed up with a Bronze in the interpretive category. All skaters were noticed for their strong performances. The Greenwood Synchro skating team was supposed to travel to Riverview NB, but due to the rather unfriendly weather we had on Friday, they were unable to attend...but will be in Truro with the rest of our skaters when the Provincial Championships are held there on the February 19-21 weekend. We are excited about our prospects and skaters are working hard to hone their skills for this big event.

The Unveiling of the Commemorative Stamp Honouring William Hall, V.C.

Submitted by: Employment Equity Diversity Council

Military and Civilian members of 14 Wing Greenwood were honoured to be invited to attend the Black Cultural Society for Nova Scotia on Tuesday, February 2nd 2010 for a historic ceremony hosted by Canada Post and Maritime Forces Atlantic. This ceremony presented the unveiling of the commemorative stamp honouring William Hall, V.C. of the British Royal Navy. A very fitting event to celebrate African Heritage Month in Nova Scotia.

The packed to capacity ceremony had a full program. Speakers included Dr. Leslie Öliver, President of the Black Cultural Society of Nova Scotia, opening prayer by Lt(N) Lenett Anderson, Rear-Admiral Paul Maddison, Commander, Maritime Forces Atlantic. Dr. Robert Waite, Chairman, Stamp Advisory committee, Canada Post and Her Honour the Honourable Mayann E. Francis, Lieutenant Governor of Nova Scotia.

William Hall was the first black person and the first Nova Scotian to be awarded the coveted Victoria Cross, the British Empire's highest award for outstanding bravery, on February 15 1859. Born in Summerville, Nova Scotia, he served in both American and Royal Navys. Hall returned to Nova Scotia in 1876 and died in 1904 in Avonport. It is important to note that Hall was buried without military honours. Redeemed in 1945, his remains were reburied with dignity by the Royal Canadian Legion at the Hantsport Baptist Church. On November 9, 1947 The Royal Canadian Legion also conducted the unveiling ceremony for a memorial

Notes from the Dak

Steady progress is being made on the Dak # 655B, and now that the rebuild on the centre section has been finalized and married to the fuselage, work has shifted to other facets of the project. Bill Flynn and Russell Keddy have removed and reinstalled many of the fuselage panels. It was a tedious process that involved removing many badly corroded and rusted screws and replacing them with new fasteners. Bob McElman, Chuck Calder, and Doc Mckeil have made the horizontal and vertical stabilizers ready for installation of the rudder and elevators that are waiting to be converted from fabric-covered to aluminum.

In the future, the Dak will be on static display, outdoors in the Museums Air Park. which necessitates various modifications to the control Free Documentation Licence.

surfaces and many openings and vents. Our project leader Eric Welin has been busy with sheet metal repairs and modifying the engine nacelles to install the turbo superchargers cover panels, which were part of the original aircraft engine package. The two "new guys" Brian Troniak and Dave Richards, a couple of folks borrowed from the Bolingbroke project, have been steam cleaning, sand blasting and doing a cosmetic overhaul on the Pratt and Whitney R1830 engines, prior to their installation. Many thanks to the 14 Air Maintenance Squadron folks in 14 Hangar for their help on this part of the project.

Below is a little history on the R1830s thanks to the Pratt and Whitney info site and utilizing the Wikipedia encyclopaedia and its G.N.U.

R1830 Turbo Wasp is a two row 14 cylinder air cooled radial that first saw the light of day in 1931. At 1830 cu inches or 30 litres, the first series or Dash numbers, produced about 800 H.P., but later versions, thanks to turbo superchargers, upped the power to 1200 H.P. which helped greatly with the takeoff weights and service ceilings.

During the Second World War the Dak/DC3/C47Skytrain made many trips and played a big part in operations flying much needed supplies over the Burma Hump, a route that was flown well over 13,000 feet. The engines in our Dak are the Dash 90/92 series that were manufactured in wartime by Buick are the higher horsepower version. This gives them a power to weight ratio of 0.96 H.P. per pound. Compare this to the turbo compound on the the Pratt and Whitney 1830 Argus which is 0.82 H.P. per pound, and to the Allison T56 which is 2.75 H.P. per pound. A testament to engineering was used in 25 different aircraft, most notably the B24 Liberator, F4F Wildcat, PBY Catalina and of course the C47 advancement and metallurgy, Skytrain/DC3. All told, there were 173,618 of the 1830's built at various facilities. A most notable figure that makes it the most produced reciprocating aircraft engine ever built.

Vincent Sauvé (Image submitted)

Submitted by Jennifer MacLeod, GMFRC Program Support Assistant

Our volunteer of the month for January 2010 is Vincent Sauvé. He started volunteering in 2007 and has volunteered with many events at the centre. Some things that Vincent has participated in are: Mad Scientist Facilitator, Youth Volunteer Meetings, 14 Wing Family Snowshoe Day, Jingle Bell Bingo, Children's Deployment Support Groups, Family Fall Pumpkin Festival, Canada Day, Christmas on the Wing, Wing Welcome, and Easter Extravaganza, just to name a few. Your outstanding efforts continue to amaze us Vincent! We are thrilled that you are a part of the team. Keep up the great work!

The Greenwood Military Family Resource Centre (GMFRC) recognizes that our volunteers truly do make a difference within the centre based on the volunteer and the community. Every volunteer donates their time and energy and embraces our mission by supporting and celebrating our unique military family lifestyle.

At the beginning of each month we will feature a different volunteer. It will be posted monthly in the Aurora newspaper. Deciding on a Volunteer of the Month is simple. Names will be chosen and drawn per month. As a registered sign-in book. It is important to always remember to record your hours, as the Volunteer of the Month will receive a special thank you gift.

We understand that every volunteer works hard and gives freely of their time and we would love to recognize each and every one of you, but there will only be one Volunteer of the Month, volunteer with the GMFRC, we do have an annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner coming up in April 2010 where every volunteer is invited and recognized

Tips for Exiting the Deployment Highway

Submitted by Ann Gaudet GMFRC Coordinator of Deployment Services. Ann. Gaudet@forces.gc.ca or 765-1494 local 5583

Are you counting the number of sleeps left or the days, hours and minutes until vou will finally reunite with your deployed loved one? Are you experiencing so many different emotions that you are not sure how you feel? Are you concerned that your loved one may not like the color you painted the living room or your new stylish hairdo. Will he or she be open to the fact you now share the bed with the family dog? Maybe you are concerned about relinquishing some of your new freedoms, the TV remote for example, or your new routine of household chores or your new hobbies and friends? You may be experiencing a sunami of emotions that varies from excitement, worry, anxiousness, irritability, or you may have trouble sleeping just to name a few. Maybe you are torn between being excited about him or her coming home and just wanting them to get home and take the kids so you can just get away and have a break from being a deployed parent.

All of these feelings are natural and normal for return and reunion of your deployed loved one. Homecoming has its own stressors, but with a little advanced preparation exiting the deployment highway and entering the homecoming homestretch becomes a little easier. Here are a few tips to help you and your deployed loved one to make the end of the journey a little easier.

 Think about what your vision of reunion and homecoming look like. Ask your deployed loved one to do the same. Compare your answers and come up with a plan that works for both of you.

- Talk to your deployed loved one about your new activities and how this deployment has changed you. Has your confidence increased, or do vou have new friends and hobbies? Also mention what you have missed about each other. Did your loved one bring you coffee in bed on Saturdays or take the kids on Sundays so you could get some extra sleep? Talk about the new activates and routines you have and make a plan on how to incorporate the deployed loved one into this new routine
- Talk about what you missed about each other. What attracted you to each other in the beginning of your relationship? When my loved one was away I missed making Sunday dinner together and having fun in the kitchen. What activities did you miss doing together? Can you make a plan to incorporate these activities into your new routines?

- Make a schedule or plan in regards to activities for the first few days of homecoming. Do the kids go to school the day the deployed parent returns? Are you going to take vacation from work? Is family coming to visit right away or is the deployed loved one wanting to go to visit family? Talking about these things prior to coming home will make the decisions easier when everyone is home together. You are re-establishing the joint decision making process in your relationship. Setting these patterns into effect prior to homecoming will help to make it easier to communicate and make decisions together once the deployed member returns.
- Talk about the children's routine. Does your deployed loved one have concerns about adjusting back into the children's lives? Are they worried that the children won't remember them or act strange? Talk about where they can jump into the routine with you. Maybe at story time you hold the child and the deployed parent reads the book. Your best bet is for the parents to sit close together on the couch. Nine times out of ten you child will end up sitting between the two of you.

Be patient with each other. The deployed loved one is iust as excited as vou are to be home and it may feel a little overwhelming to them too. They might want to jump right in where they left off or stand back to see where they fit. They may have difficulty adjusting to the new routines in the family or your new found deployment independence.

Talk to each other and make suggestions on how the routines and tasks can be adapted for your retuning loved one to feel included.

Take time to be together. Use the list you created earlier about the things that you missed, admire, and attract you to each other, exchange the list with your partner. Set a date night together and get to know one another again. This could begin a second honeymoon for you both.

Remember it will take time to readjust to each other and to the family. Be patient, communicate, spend time together, and actively listen to your partner. Continue to foster the relationships and coping skills you have developed during this deployment. For more information, tips and ideas for navigating return, reunion, homecoming, and deployment contact me anytime.

Les Débrouillards de l'École Rose-des-Vents de Greenwood remportent le défi de la ligue FIRST LEGO de la compétition de programmation robotique de l'université d'Acadia

Par Patrick Ouellet, fier père d'un membre de l'équipe

Le samedi 30 janvier 2010, à seulement leur 2ième année de compétition, l'équipe, composée de six jeunes étudiants (de 10 à 12 ans) de l'école Rose-des-Vents du Conseil Scolaire Acadien Provincial, gagne le titre tant convoité, contre 20 autres équipes venant de toute la Nouvelle-Écosse

Le mouvement FIRST (en anglais: For Inspiration and Recognition of Science and Technology – Pour l'inspiration et la reconnaissance de la science et de la technologie) fut fondé en 1989 afin d'inspirer l'intérêt et la participation des jeunes dans le domaine de la science et de la technologie. Cette charité non-lucrative prévoit des programmes accessibles qui motivent les jeunes à poursuivre une éducation ainsi que des chances de carrière en science, technologie et ingénierie, tout en développant la confiance en soi, le savoir et les habilités de la vie de tous les jours. FIRST s'est associée à la compagnie LEGO pour créer la ligue FIRST LEGO, permettant à des jeunes étudiants (de 9 à 14 ans) de faire face à des situations problématiques réelles, en créant des robots à base LEGO pour accomplir des tâches sur un tapis thématique. Ces équipes, guidées par leur imagination et leurs entraîneurs adultes, découvrent des options de carrières excitantes fout en contribuant de façon positive à la société.

Sous les ailes de leurs entraîneurs Ray Rousseau, Agatha Bourassa et Nicole Bergeron, ces jeunes programmeurs (Malek Bergeron, Olivier Ferland, Gabriel Ouellet, Mi- Intelligente) », où les équipes chaël Perreault, Alexandra Rousseau et Luc Rousseau) ont commencé à se préparer pour la compétition en septembre. Le thème de cette année est « Smart Move (Action doivent identifier un problème dans leur communauté, et proposer des solutions en vue de les corriger. L'équipe de Rose-des-Vents a choisi de s'adresser au problème du transport global de biens de consommation contribuant au gaz à effet de serre. En faisant la promotion du concept d'acheter des biens venant de notre région, ils offrent une solution permettant de réduire l'émission de gaz produits par l'importation des biens qui sont alternativement disponible d'origine locale, par conséquence aidant à ultimement réduire l'effet de serre. Ils ont aussi considéré le recyclage et le covoiturage qui, sur une longue période, aident à diminuer les effets néfastes sur la planète. Les tâches de la compétition comprenaient une performance théâtrale aux juges et autres équipes, la composition d'une affiche (qui gagna première place et se retrouvera sur le chandail de la compétition de l'année prochaine), l'explication de concepts de recherche et de programmation, et culminant par la compétition de programmation thématiques de robots. Les robots de chaque équipe auraient trois chances pour accomplir leur tâches, d'où les Débrouillards triompheront.

Leurs présentations sanspareil, programmations de robots exceptionnels, sourires omniprésents – et chevelures flamboyantes – auront laissé une impression aux juges qui leur vaudra la première place. Ceci signifie que l'équipe des Débrouillards est la seule en Nouvelle-Écosse (parmi seulement quatre provinces canadiennes) à être invitée à participer au championnat FIRST à Atlanta, Géorgie, en avril, pour célébrer les accomplissements de projets des équipes et la robotique, où ils pourront tenter leurs habiletés contre les meilleures équipes de 36 pays! Afin de pouvoir y participer, leur devoir est maintenant de polir leur performance, et bien sûr d'amasser les fonds requis pour couvrir les frais de transport aérien, de logis et autres coûts associés en vu de réaliser cette expérience unique. Nous leur souhaitons la meilleure des chances!

On 17 November 2009, Private Christine Jamieson was administered the Oath of Allegiance by Major Brenda Milligan, Air Reserve Flight Commander (closely monitored by CWO Murray Aalders) as the newest Air Reservist at 14 Wing.

This very solemn occasion was witnessed by an impressive array of family and friends who came out to show their support. Private Jamieson, future RMS Clerk, is currently employed in the Orderly Room at 413 (Search and Rescue) Squadron, receiving some very pertinent on-job training before leaves for Basic Training in February. Best of luck, Christine! (Submitted)

ARIES - Mar 21/Apr 20

It'll take a while for you to get moving this week, Aries, but once you do, there will be no stopping you. Pace yourself, however, or you could burn out much too fast.

TAURUS - Apr 21/May 21

This is a good time to concentrate on your finances, Taurus. Reexamine your budget or make a plan for the new year. Bills pile up later in the week and will need addressing.

GEMINI - May 22/Jun 21

Put on a happy face even if you aren't in the mood, Gemini. It'll make getting through the week a little easier. You are a master at hiding your true emotions.

CANCER - Jun 22/Jul 22

What are you trying to prove, Cancer? Taking on too much isn't going to win you points with the higher-ups. It'll quickly tire you out and then your performance will suffer.

LEO - Jul 23/Aug 23

Making new friends comes easily to you, Leo. You have a magnetism, which will certainly come through this week. Others are ready to do your bidding.

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22

Slow down, Virgo. This breakneck pace you've been keeping is a recipe for disaster. Things will still be there if you arrive at them at a slower pace.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23

If you don't concentrate on where your money is going, pretty soon you will be in the red, Libra. Use your time wisely to sit down and examine your finances.

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22

You need a vacation, Scorpio, so simply take one. Don't be concerned about the consequences; your mental health is more important at this point.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21

Changes are in store and that worries you, Sagittarius. Learn to embrace a little variety in life and you'll be a well-rounded person. A financial windfall is on the horizon.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20

Focus on friends the next few days, Capricorn. You never know when you may need to ask a favour from them. A scheduling conflict arises on Wednesday.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18

There's not much you can do to change a present situation. Aquarius, and that is frustrating Channel your energy into something you can tackle to take your mind off the other.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20

With Pisces birthdays on the horizon, start thinking about how you would like to spend your special day. Let loose.

Military Families, Strength Behind the Uniform

Greenwood Players

The Greenwood Players will be holding auditions for their Spring

Production of "Murdered to Death", a comedy whodunit.

by Bonnie J. Malcolm

Submitted by: Michelle Thibodeau Wagner, Coordinator of Special Events and Promotions, Greenwood Military Family Resource Centre 765-1491 local 1421 michelle.thibodeau-wagner@forces.gc.ca

Military Families lead a lifestyle like no other.

We often times forget that military families are called upon to serve their country just as much as their Canadian Forces family member. During their time "in the military" spouses are asked to be a single caregiver more times than they can count for deployments, courses, taskings or other missions. How many times have military families juggled schools, kids, jobs and appointments all while keeping the house clean, making sure lunches are made and homework is done and the cat get's fed. Skill building experiences.... Who else can fix a pipe with duct tape and bubble gum besides MacGyver? Military Families.... That's who!!!

The cast will be made up of 5 males and 5 females. Age group from 20 to 70, no previous experience is necessary and following dates:

Military families are asked to move from province to province, sometimes country to country. Families start over each posting to create their support base and friendship network, start a new job or a new school. Military families take this all in stride; learn from every posting and experience. They learn to laugh at things that got broken during the move because they defiantly can't be fixed or chuckle about how they got lost driving through Montreal at rush hour. Military families learn to look back fondly on the "awful" places they have been posted and remember the friends they met there. They are stronger for it.

For people looking from the outside in, they are unsure of how military families do it..... how do they manage? They manage because military families are proud and strong. They manage because Military Families truly are the Strength Behind the Uniform.

.CC Book Club News

Please note the LCC book club is open to all staff of 14 Wing Greenwood. New Members are welcome!

February's Selection is Mercy Among the Children by David Adams Richards thinks he has killed Connie from a roof for stealing his sandwich. He vows to God he will never again harm another if Connie survives. Connie walks away, laughing, and Sydney embarks upon a life of selfimmolating goodness. In spite of having educated himself with such classics as Tolstoy and Marcus Aurelius, he is not taken seriously enough to enter university because of his background of dire poverty and abuse, which leads everyone to expect the worst of him. His saintly generosity of spirit is treated with suspicion and contempt, especially when he manages to win the love of beautiful Elly. Unwilling to harm another in thought or deed, or to defend himself against false accusations, he is exploited and tormented by others in this rural community. Summary and finally implicated in the death of a 19-year-old boy.

Lyle Henderson knows Devlin when he pushes him his father is innocent, but is angry that the family has been ridiculed for years, and that his mother and sister suffer for it. He feels betrayed by his father's passivity in the face of one blow after another, and unable to accept his belief in long-term salvation. Unlike his father, he cannot believe that evil will be punished in the end. While his father turns the other cheek, Lyle decides the right way is in fighting, and embarks on a morally empty life of stealing, drinking and violence.

Last week the boys and girls from the Morfee Annex Nursery School enjoyed a fun filled morning of games and activities in their pyjamas!

During their gym time Elmo joined the children for some dancing and singing along with his new DVD Elmo's "Tickle Hands".

Pyjama Day

At the Morfee Annex Nursery School registration is now underway for the September 2010/2011 program. Although it seems far too early to be thinking about next fall, spaces for all of our programs are filling fast.

Our school offers both English and French Immersion programs for Nursery School and Preschool aged children.

For more information on any of our classes you can contact the schools director Maurina Duret at 765-1494 local 5301, or pick up one of the schools brochures at the 14 Wing Community Centre.

Important Change to Saturday Respite Childcare at the GMFRC

Submitted by: Kim Dixon, GMFRC Coordinator of Child and Youth Services at 765-1494 local 1812

The GMFRC offers Respite Childcare Services that will assist CF families during a deployment as well as for the challenges this unique lifestyle may bring. The GMFRC understands that finding short term childcare in our area can be difficult: therefore we are pleased to offer this service to deployed families who would like to take some time for themselves on the weekend without having the stress of trying to find a babysitter for a few hours. Maybe you want the month of February are:

Due to a significant increase in the number of families registering for our Saturday Respite Childcare, the GMFRC is pleased to offer deployed families with the choice of 1 of the 2 monthly Saturday Respite dates as we try to meet the recent demand for childcare on Saturday's at the GMFRC. Deployed families can now choose from one of the two Saturday Respite dates

14 Construction Engineering Squadron Participates in ADR/RRR Training

By: Master Corporal Doug Nauss – 14 CES

14-30 Oct 09

On 13 October 2009, eleven Mobile Support Equipment Operators (MSE Ops) from 14 Construction Engineering Squadron deployed to 4 Wing Cold Lake to take part in Airfield Damage Repair/ Rapid Runway Repair Training being conducted by 4 Construction Engineering Squadron. Eight other MSE Ops from various bases joined them to create the nineteen member heavy equipment team. There were also five construction engineer officers and three Combat Engineer Officers who made up the Mat Crew. Since this was a NATO recertification course required for Canada to maintain its status as a signatory to the Standard NATO Agreement (STANAG 2929), the training still commenced with a bare minimum number of students. Ideally there should be twenty one on the heavy equipment team and twelve on the Mat

The goal of the course was to train everyone on the equipment and techniques required to repair three craters within three hours while achieving the prescribed repair quality criteria. The three hour time frame also included the installation of folded fibreglass matting (FFM) being installed over two craters and Class 60 track way over the third. This was going to be a challenge with the low number of students and very little experience amongst them. Training started out with familiarization and exposure to the equipment being used on the course. Once everyone had an opportunity to do some hands-on training the programme moved to technique. This was when the crews started to perform actual crater repair.

Starting out with just one crater, the students finished in about four hours; not nearly good enough if the NATO standard was to be obtained.

With more practice and experience on the equipment the time did improve. The training then progressed to the simultaneous repair of two craters. Equipment and personnel now had to be shared between the two craters, meaning the crater chiefs had to plan and organize their crater repairs more efficiently. As one would expect, the time increased. Again with more practice and experience with the techniques and equipment, the students were able to get their time back down. It was now time to introduce the third crater. This was when the challenges really presented themselves. Equipment now had to be shared among three craters! This left one crater chief waiting for equipment to complete various parts of the twelve steps of crater repair. This meant precise coordination of equipment and personnel was now vital if the crews were to make the NATO standard.

a matter of shaving off time with each practice while trying to reach the magic number of three hours. With the passing of each attempt, the crews were becoming very skeptical on whether they would be able to achieve the standard on evaluation day. Methods were modified while a sense of urgency was instilled in everyone, which contributed to a steady improvement in time. With every passing practice, the students were successful in reducing their time by five or more minutes! Things were looking good, spirits were high and everyone was feeling a bit more optimistic.

chiefs went to their respective craters, Mat Crew started their FFM assembly and operators went to their equipment. Radio communications commenced at a furious rate, the majority coming from the crater chiefs requesting equipment for debris removal. Things seemed to be going very well; debris and upheaval was removed allowing backfilling and compacting to begin. Spirits remained high and everyone seemed to be executing their tasks seamlessly. Craters one and two were backfilled and compacted, Repair Quality Criteria (RQC) tests were performed. They passed! The craters were turned over to the Mat Crew for installation of FFM. Craters one and two were completed, sweeping continued until crater three was ready. RQC testing was completed and the track way was in place waiting to be unrolled over crater three. It was now two hours and thirty five minutes into the evaluation. All hands were on deck to help finish crater three. Track way was unrolled and stretched into position, holes were drilled and the track way was bolted down. Sweeping commenced while an inspection was being performed to ensure all bolts and bushings were in place. Again, everyone stood to the side waiting for the sweeper to make its final pass. Clock stopped! Did they do it? Were they able to shave off fifteen minutes from their time? Two hours fifty five minutes thirty seconds. They did it. They shaved off twenty minutes. Not bad for an inexperienced, shorthanded crew whose efforts ensured Canada remained a signatory to STANAG 2929.

You are lucky people, all of you. You don't realize you are all living in heaven.
