Wednesday, May 11, 2011 was McHappy Day which is an annual event at McDonald's restaurants, where a percentage of the day's sales go to charity. The Greenwood McDonald's donates one dollar of every coffee, Big Mac and Happy Meal to charity. From all the money raised, fifty percent goes to Ronald McDonald House in Halifax and fifty percent goes to Camp Brigadoon.

Acting 14 Wing Commander, Lieutenant Colonel Steve Chouinard, Chief

Warrant Officer Ron Kinsman and Captain Mike Sampson assisted the staff in taking and filling food and drink orders. This is a rare opportunity for the rank and file of 14 Wing to have their Command staff serve them; it's not often that a lower rank can give an order to the Commanding Officer!

Store Manager Sherry Connors, who has worked at this store since 1988, stated "I would like to thank 14 Wing for their continued support throughout the year!"

Why Volunteer?

Written by: Susan J. Ellis,
President, Energize,
Inc.

Submitted by: Leona
Conrick, Volunteer
Services Manager,
GMFRC

People volunteer for a wide variety of reasons, especially wanting to help others, but it's also OK to want some benefits for yourself from volunteering.

Some people are uncomfortable with the notion that a volunteer "benefits" from doing volunteer work. There is a long tradition of seeing volunteering as a form of charity, based on altruism and selflessness. The best volunteering does involve the desire to serve others, but this does not exclude other motivations, as well.

Instead of considering volunteering as something you do for people who are not as fortunate as yourself, begin to think of it as an exchange.

Consider that most people find themselves in need at some point in their lives. So today you may be the person with the ability to help, but tomorrow you may be the recipient of someone else's volunteer effort. Even now you might be on both sides of the service cycle: maybe you are a tutor for someone who can't read, while last month the volunteer ambulance corps rushed you to the emergency room. Volunteering also includes "self-help." So if you are active in your neighbourhood crime watch, your home is protected while you protect your neighbours' homes, too. Adding your effort to the work of others makes everyone's lives better.

Your Motivations

Think about how much you receive when you give and consider why you want to volunteer. You may have several different reasons. Here are just a few of the many possible motivations identified by other volunteers:

- to feel needed
- to share a skill
- to get to know a community
- to demonstrate commitment to a cause/belief
- to gain leadership skills
- to act out a fantasy
- to do your civic duty
- because of pressure from a friend or relative
- satisfaction from accomplishment
- to keep busy
- for recognition
- to repay a debt
- to donate your professional skills
- because there is no one else to do it
- to have an impact
- to learn something new
- for freedom of schedule
- to help a friend or relative
- for escape

- to become an "insider"
- guilt
- to be challenged
- to be a watchdog
- to feel proud
- to make new friends
- to explore a career
- to help someone
- as therapy
- to do something different from your job
- for fun!
- for religious reasons
- to earn academic credit
- to keep skills alive
- because an agency is geographically close
- to have an excuse to do what you love
- to be able to criticize
- to assure progress
- to feel good
- to be part of a team
- to gain status
- because you were asked
- to test yourself
- to build your resume
- to be an agent of change
- because of personal experience with the problem, illness, or cause
- to stand up and be counted

You will probably have some special reasons of your own. Remember that the motivations you have to select the place to offer your services may not be the reasons why you stay. Once you're on the volunteer job, you will continue to serve as long as you feel that your efforts are accomplishing something, that your talents are appreciated, and that you make a difference. And if you also like the people with whom you work, so much the better!

As long as you are truly serving through your volunteer work, isn't it wonderful that such an exchange occurs? In fact, it tends to strengthen your commitment to volunteering when you can see the benefits to both the recipient of your efforts and to yourself. And it is much more comfortable than "charity" because it upholds the self-esteem of those with whom you volunteer.

New Arena/Curling Facility Site Announced for Greenwood

May 6, 2011

Kingston/Greenwood

Submitted by: Jennifer Weisner, Communications and Community Development Officer, Kings Regional Development Agency

The new arena/curling complex in Greenwood will be located near the 14 Wing CANEX/Aviation Museum and aircraft display area. The location is bounded by Zeke's Brook to the north, the MQ's of Maple Street to the south, Ward Road to the east and Bowlby Park Drive to the west. The site is on DND lands contained within the property boundary of 14 Wing proper.

The group working toward building this new facility, the Arena/Curling Partnership Project (ACPP Committee) was formed in 2009 when 14 Wing Greenwood (Department of National Defence DND), was in the process of planning to construct a new arena to replace its existing obsolete rink currently located on base. In considering a new facility, it approached various community groups and local governments to partner on the project and include a second ice surface as part of the plan. In addition to DND, participating organizations include: Province of Nova Scotia; Municipality of the County of Kings; Village of Kingston; Village of Greenwood; Western Kings Arena Association; Greenwood Curling Club and Kings Regional Development Agency.

The Committee investigated various options for moving the project forward, and in December of 2010, CBCL Limited was engaged to evaluate two potential sites to be considered for a potential partnered facility. Both sites, owned by DND, were reviewed and the commissioned report recommended the chosen site. Base Commander Colonel Bill Seymour approved the study's recommendation and the ACPP committee accepted the proposed site at the April 5, 2011 meeting.

Funding will continue to be sought and confirmed as plans continue for targeted construction in the 2015/16 timeframe.

New Updated Radar for 14 Wing Greenwood

Warrant Officer Marvin Williams sitting beside the Quad radar at 14 Wing Greenwood.
(Image: Sgt PJ "Pete" Nicholson, 14 Wing Photojournalist)

By Master Corporal Vick Finlayson

A team of technicians from 8 Wing Trenton, in conjunction with technicians from 14 Wing, have been working steadily since November of 2010 on the installation of the AN-TPN-501 Quad Radar, or "Quad." The radar has been flight checked and is currently in service at 14 Wing Greenwood.

The Quad has been utilized, at one point of time or another, at every Air Traffic Control Unit in Canada since its inception in the 1950's. It has proven to be a reliable piece of equipment, employed on countless occasions over its illustrious history providing positive control to pilots and their aircraft in less than ideal weather conditions.

Mr. George Davis has been working with the Quad for over forty years, both as a member of the Canadian Forces and as a civilian contractor. Upon completion of its installation in Greenwood, George will be retiring, leaving behind a lifetime of experience and expertise.

This radar will not be a permanent fixture at 14 Wing but rather an essential approach aid necessary to ensure a seamless transition to the scheduled implementation of the PAR 2000. The PAR 2000 is the latest development of the Precision Approach Navigational Aid, bringing in a digital feature. In order to bring this newer version on line the system currently employed at 14 Wing, the AN/FPN 503, had to be de-commissioned and removed from its current location.

Training for the Radar Controllers on the new PAR 2000 will take place in Van Nuys, California scheduled for May 2011. A portion of the PAR controllers currently employed at 14 Wing will attend this training scheduled to take place over a period of approximately two weeks. They in turn will train the remaining controllers upon their return to the unit.

The Quad Radar has not been utilized in Greenwood for several years and training current PAR controllers to the systems intricacies has been challenging. The main reason for this challenge is a lack of qualified controllers at the unit level with the required background to ensure adequate knowledge is passed on. Warrant Officer (WO) Marvin Williams is one such individual. With over twenty five years experience as a PAR controller, WO Williams has been working with the Quad intermittently for the better part of his military career and has passed on a great deal of his in-depth knowledge of the system to today's PAR controllers.

Upon its implementation this coming summer, the PAR 2000 will continue the legacy of providing first rate Air Traffic Control services just as its predecessor a generation earlier did.

Private David Wright Receives National Award

By Captain Kapralik

The National Flight Safety Program recognizes significant contributions made by individuals, teams and organizations that prevent the accidental loss of aviation resources. This recognition is bestowed through a national awards program. One of these awards is the For Professionalism Award, which recognizes acts that reflect a superior professional attitude that either reduced the severity or averted an aircraft accident or serious incident. Recipients of this award have demonstrated superior skill in identifying and rectifying a significant Flight Safety hazard in very difficult circumstances. 14 Air Maintenance Squadron (AMS) is honoured to have one such individual, Private (Pte) David Wright, who received this esteemed national For Professionalism Award. The award was presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Tom Flynn, the Commanding Officer of 14 AMS, at the Honours and Award Parade in April.

While Pte Wright was carrying out an On-the-Job Training After-Flight Check on aircraft CP140104, he discovered two crossed control cables in the left hand wing inboard trailing edge area. His meticulous attention to detail was instrumental in his finding the left hand aileron trim cable and emergency unlock release cable incorrectly routed and chafing against each other, thus inhibiting the smooth action of both systems. He immediately alerted his supervisor, who then informed the senior chain of command and a Flight Safety was raised.

Through a detailed inspection of both the aileron trim and emergency landing gear lowering systems, it was determined that no physical damage was evident; however, if left undetected the tension and chafing of the crossed cables would have become severe enough to cause a complete cable/flight control failure and/or to interfere with the safe lowering of the main landing gear in an emergency situation. It was concluded through a search of the Automated Data Aircraft Maintenance (ADAM) system that the cables had been in this condition for quite some time and the aircraft had flown many times since the last recorded maintenance in this area on these systems.

Thanks to Pte Wright's outstanding attention to detail a potentially catastrophic flight safety incident was averted. For displaying the professionalism and true airmanship traits of a seasoned Aviation Technician well beyond his experience level, Pte Wright is highly deserving of the For Professionalism Award. His exemplary actions serve as an inspiration to his peers and supervisors alike.

The 19th Hole

Hopefully by the time this goes to print, our weather will have changed. Can't believe this amount of rain...and it has been so cold. I can't imagine there have been many brave souls out on the golf course this past week. THINGS WILL CHANGE...I think!

On Mother's Day the Ladies held their Get-acquainted Tournament and there were 15 ladies who showed up and played 9 holes. Pretty good turn out considering it was Mother's Day. The ladies were treated to lunch and some cake...nice treat. The winners of the day were: B. Saltzman, K. Gelinas and D. Sampson: 2nd: S. Adams, C. Litsas and P. Wilson: 3rd: S. Johnson, T. Stephan and S. O'Connor. Thanks to all who came out and thanks to Donna H. for organizing this one. Next week I will have the results of the Ladies Early Bird tournament.

There was another Hole in One on the course, Pat Grist aced the 3rd hole and witnessing the shot were Scottie Cooper and Steve Belanger. Congratulations Pat.

The Men's Opening Tournament will be June 5th (Sunday) starting at 1:00 p.m. The cost is $20 per person with skins extra. The meal is included in the price and the cut off date for the tournament is June 1st. The sign up sheet is on the bulletin board, so get your name down for this opening tournament.

Opening date for the kitchen is May 20th. Take some one out for a round of golf and treat them to lunch at the course.

The Founders Mixed Tournament is the weekend of May 28-29, so if you haven't sent your entry in for this one, don't wait too long. Info is on the website for the golf course or call Betty Saltzman.

Don't forget that Men's Night and Ladies' Night start on May 17 and 18 and then Ladies' Morning golf starts on May 19th. The ever-popular Friday Night 2-Ball is set to start on May 20th (the day the kitchen opens). Show support for these, come on out for a game of golf.

Several of our golfers will be in Clare for the Mixed tournament on the long weekend and hopefully there will be some success stories to share after that weekend.

I heard that Michael C. had a Chicken bone scare...glad to hear you are o.k, didn't you

Mom ever tell you to stay away from lumps in your porridge and bones in your soup?

I am anxious to get out for another round of golf. The course is in great shape everything is so green, but Mother Nature is just not co-operating. Someday soon it WILL be warm. Hats off to the Maintenance Staff for having the course in such great shape and it is nice to see all the raking has been picked up between Hole 12 and Hole 15. Great Job.

Don't forget to say hi to the new members, make them feel welcome. All golfers, remember to sign in at the Pro Shop before you head out on the course.

Did you get your ticket and/or tickets on the 3 year membership draw...what a deal...only $10 a ticket. You can't golf anywhere for $10. Tickets are available at the Pro Shop.

Until next week...enjoy The Challenge...Golf Fore You. war

Spring Shopping Expo a Success

Submitted by: Jennifer Christopherson, Military Family Home Based Business Group

Last weekend the Fourth Annual Spring Shopping Expo was held at the Greenwood Mall on Friday evening and all day Saturday. There were twenty four vendors in attendance for the show, representing a broad range of home based businesses. It was a wonderful weekend to come out to pick up that special something or to find out more about the wonderful businesses we have so close at hand here.

The Military Family Home Based Business group would like to thank everyone who participated as a vendor, and who came out to support this event. We would like to send a special thank you to the Greenwood Mall who was gracious enough to allow us to hold our event at such a popular location. In addition, our participating vendors were so generous with the products and services donated to the gift baskets, that we decided to lavish two lucky draw winners with the bounty! The lucky winners were Gail Wrenn and Natasha Melanson. Congratulations to the both of you and we hope to see everyone again in November at the Military Family Home Based Business groups Christmas Shopping Expo!

The Military Family Home Based Business Group has been established to help promote our businesses within the military and civilian communities of 14 Wing Greenwood. We share our experiences on various aspects of running a business from home within the unique military lifestyle. The group also allows us to network and learn new skills to make our businesses more successful and to create a resource for support in running a home based business. Please look for us on Facebook or contact Stephanie Townsend at 765-1494 ext 1816 for more information.

~ Thank you ~

The family of the late Rick Bryson would like to thank family, friends and neighbours for donations, cards, phone calls, emails, food and flowers. Thank you for your thoughtfulness and support while Rick was ill and has continued since his passing. We are truly grateful to Don MacCoy and Kingston Legion Branch #98 for their fitting tribute to Rick. Thanks to Mary, the organist and Ralph Swinamer for his kind words. The Legion Auxiliary did a great job with the refreshments. Thanks ladies. To the Middleton Funeral Home (Gary, Tom and Gary's Mom) we send thanks for their compassion, professionalism and excellent service. A big THANK YOU to Rev. Philip Read and the members of the Linden Community Center who made Rick's interment a sad but memorable event. In lieu of individual thank you cards a donation will be made to the Renwick United Church Cemetery Fund.

Nova Scotia Health Officer Issues Warning About Blacklegged Ticks

Let's get informed! Think Health Promotion!

Provided by: Capt
Bachynski-Powell

So the weather's ideal and you're raring to enjoy the great outdoors — but you're feeling fatigued, and you're suffering from chills, fever, headache, muscle and joint pain. Maybe swollen lymph nodes, too. Can't figure out why you're coming down with conditions you'd expect to feel in the winter? Could be you're in the early stages of Lyme disease, or not.

HALIFAX - Nova Scotia's public health officer is warning campers and hikers to take precautions against bites from blacklegged ticks. "The risk of Lyme disease is quite low in most areas of Nova Scotia," said Dr. Robert Strang, Chief Public Health Officer for Nova Scotia. The insects can transmit Lyme disease, which can cause serious health problems if left untreated. Dr. Robert Strang says the risk of Lyme disease is quite low in most areas of Nova Scotia, "We have to recognize that ticks are here to stay but that doesn't mean we shouldn't enjoy the outdoors this summer." People should take action in areas where blacklegged ticks are established, including parts of Bedford, Shelburne County, Pictou County and Heckmans Island in Lunenburg County. Dr. Strang says blacklegged ticks can only transmit the bacterial infection after they have been attached to the skin for about 24 hours.

Tick Information

Ticks are found in grassy, brushy areas where they wait for a host to pass by. They are especially prevalent along paths used by animals. Ticks are not choosy about their host and often get onto a person's leg. They crawl upward on the body, looking for a place to attach. Their populations are greater in the spring and summer following a mild winter.

In Canada, the blacklegged tick (Ixodes scapularis; often referred to as a deer tick) and the western blacklegged tick (Ixodes pacificus) are the species known to transmit the disease-causing agent, as well as other less common agents.

Ticks have a 4-stage life cycle: egg, larvae, nymph, and adult. The nymph and adult forms are able to attach to humans and other animals and possibly transmit diseases.

Though closely related to insects, ticks are actually a type of mite.

Ticks vary in size and colour; blacklegged ticks are very small. Before feeding, adult females are approximately 3-5 mm in length and red and dark brown in colour. Females are a little larger than males and when they're full of blood can be as big as a grape. Younger tick life stages are smaller and, when unfed, are lighter in colour.

A tick bite is not painful and may go unnoticed. In most cases, the tick simply bites, draws blood for its nourishment, and drops off. If the tick happens to be infected, the infectious agent is transmitted during the feeding process. It is important to realize the majority of ticks are not infected.

How to avoid Tick's

Avoid tick-infested areas as mentioned above.

Wear light-colored clothing so ticks can be seen.

Wear long-sleeved shirts and tuck pants into socks. So what if your kids laugh at you, make them do it too!

Wear shoes that cover your entire foot - avoid sandals in areas where ticks might be.

Apply insect repellents containing DEET to clothing and exposed skin. Read guidelines on can for application on children. See DEET Guidelines on Vector Control web page.

Check your body thoroughly for ticks.

The number of ticks in endemic residential areas may be reduced by removing leaf litter, brush and woodpiles around houses and at the edges of yards, and by clearing trees and brush to admit more sunlight and reduce the amount of suitable habitat for deer, rodents, and ticks. Tick populations have also been effectively suppressed through the application of pesticides to residential properties.

How to remove a tick

If a tick is removed within 24 hours, the chances of it transmitting Lyme disease or other infections are much less.

Use tweezers. Grasp the tick by the HEAD as close as possible and pull upward with steady, even pressure. DO NOT TWIST, JERK OR SQUEEZE THE TICK.

Thoroughly wash the bite site with soap and water and disinfect the bite. Wash your hands.

Never remove a tick with fingernail polish, alcohol or hot matches.

If you have saved the tick, take it with you to the doctor's office.

To help track tick activity, people are urged to send ticks that they find on themselves or pets to the Museum of Natural History in Halifax. Nova Scotians can also drop ticks off at a local Department of Natural Resources office. The ticks should be placed in an empty pill bottle and labelled with the date and location where they were found.

Symptoms

Certain ticks may release a toxin that can cause temporary paralysis. This is the reason it is important to remove the whole tick as soon as possible.

If you have the following symptoms within days or weeks after being bitten by a tick, report them to your family doctor immediately. Tell your doctor when and where a tick bit you.

General symptoms of fever, headache, muscle and joint pains, fatigue or weakness of the muscles of the face.

Skin rash, especially one that looks like a bull's eye. It may or may not be where the bite was.

In some cases paralysis may occur. The paralysis usually starts in the feet and legs and works its way up to the upper body, arms and head. This paralysis usually starts within a few hours to a day or two of the bite.

The Sum up!

There are currently no vaccines licensed in Canada for any diseases passed on by ticks.

Lyme disease and other tick-related diseases can be treated with antibiotics. Early diagnosis and treatment can help prevent complications. An infected tick can only transmit the disease if it has been attached to a person for 24 hours.

The Health Department of Nova Scotia says 17 cases of Lyme disease were reported in the province last year.

There have been 67 confirmed and probable cases of Lyme disease in Nova Scotia since 2002.

Dwight Ross Elementary School Celebrates 50 Years!

Submitted by: Mrs. Foley,
Librarian. Re-written by Candace' May Ernst
former Dwight Ross
Student.

Dwight Ross Elementary School officially opened their doors on May 25, 1961. It was built in Greenwood to serve the military dependents with Grade Primary to Six which was then known as the Royal Canadian Air Force Station Greenwood.

The school was named after Air Commodore Arthur Dwight Ross, GC, CBE, CD who distinguished himself as a war hero in the Second World War when he was appointed a Commander of the most excellent order of the British Empire and after the war as Chief Staff Officer of Training Commanding, Air Transport Command and Air Officer Commanding, Maritime Air Staff, London, England and then Commander of No. 5 Air Division, Vancouver, B.C.

Dwight Ross Elementary School was the first school built in Greenwood but as the years went by the expansion of the base saw continuing changes in the student population. That's when Russell C. Gordon School was built and Dwight Ross Elementary School evolved from the original Primary to Grade 6, to Grades 3-7, then 3-8, then 3-9 and finally Grades 6-9 in the mid 60's. In 1986, AVM Morfee School housed Primary to Grade 3 and Dwight Ross Elementary School switched to Grades 4-9. In 1988, the Schools were turned over to the former Kings County Amalgamated School Board. In 1988 to 1989, Russell C. Gordon School re-opened with Primary to Grade 3 (English) and Primary to Grade 6 (Francophone). Dwight Ross Elementary School then housed Grades 4-9 (English) and 7-9 (Francophone). In 2000, the French Board took over Russell C. Gordon and Grade 9 students were all sent to West Kings District High School in Aylesford/Auburn. At this time Dwight Ross Elementary School housed Primary to Grade 8. In January 2001, Pine Ridge Middle School opened their doors to house Grades 6-8. This now left Dwight Ross Elementary School, Primary to Grade 5. In 2001, Dwight Ross Elementary School became an Elementary school to stay!

The School has a strong tradition of community involvement and pride. In 2004, the school was named by Today's Parent Magazine as one of Canada's top four Elementary Schools.

School Principals over the years were as followed: Katherine West(1960-1972), Alec MacAskill (1972-1986), John Rainforth (1986-1993), David Reid (1993-2001), Karl West (2001-2006), Barry Squires (2006-2009) and last but not least Eueline Keysor (2009 to Present).

As stated in our school vision statement, "We are a School community inspired to think, dream, believe, and achieve through partnerships among children, parents, staff and community in a safe nurturing environment."

As you can see from above the school had a huge population of students that attended classes over the last 50 years. Many people reading this article today may have walked the halls of Dwight Ross Elementary School whether it was yourself or with your children. Former staff, students and friends of the School why not mark your calendars for Tuesday May 24, 2011 and get ready for an afternoon of fun and help celebrate 50 years of smiles. An open house, School tour and reception will be held in the School's conference room from 4:00-6:00 p.m. This will be preceded by a recognition assembly from 1:15-2:15 p.m. in the School's gymnasium. As well celebrations will take place at various times throughout the afternoon!

If you or your family would like to attend the celebration, we ask that you please RSVP to the school as soon as possible. (Phone: 765-7510 or e-mail: dres@avrsb.ca).

The staff looks forward to seeing the many faces from the past, present and future of Dwight Ross Elementary School.

You are invited to come out to the GMFRC on Friday, May 27th, at 12 noon for a Red Friday Hotdog BBQ lunch and walk. Wear Red and we'll give you lunch. # First Red Hat Finds Home at the Smithsonian

Submitted by: Daisy J. Dwyer

".....The Red Hat Society is an organization that encourages strong bonds and living life to the fullest - ideas that are cherished by our society."

Brent D. Glass, Museum Director
Red Hatters, en masse, were out and about in their various communities across Nova Scotia on Monday, April 25, 2011 to celebrate the thirteenth anniversary of the Red Hat Society. Based in California, this international sorority of women, whose colours of red and purple beautify the landscape wherever they gather, is a testament of the spirit of ageing gracefully. With women from many countries around the world engaged in the movement, the continuing excitement of the chapters is displayed in a variety of interesting events, lively hoots and everlasting friendships.

This year, in Nova Scotia, many chapters participated in the anniversary celebrations with an assortment of social engagements ranging from teas to parades to community social events.

In Washington, D.C., the original red hat that started the movement was ceremoniously placed in the Smithsonian's Museum of American History for permanent display.

More locally, the members of the Delightfully Dashing Debutantes Chapter, a group eight years in the making, frolicked about the Greenwood Mall in their flashy and decorated red Easter Bonnets while enjoying their camaraderie as a long lasting and festive group of invigorated women from our surrounding communities.

For information on Red Hatting call 765-3906.

Hackmatack Program

Submitted by: Ann Marie Chalifoux

The above group of Dwight Ross Elementary School students took part in the Hackmatack Children's Choice Book Award program offered at their school. It is a literary program started early in the school year and was offered to students in grades four to six. The students met once a week to discuss books that had been read and to write book reports. This program ended at the end of March. Good job to all students who took part in this opportunity and a special "round of applause" for Ross Ogilvie who read all 26 books that were offered!

Fun By The Numbers

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
