Greenwood's 'giving spirit' makes Santa's nice list

Sara White. Managing editor

14 Wing Greenwood has a big footprint as the Royal Canadian Air Force's largest East Coast base – but it also has a big heart.

Santa Claus put some time in on the December 2 food drive line with members of Communications and Information Systems (CIS) Flight, their fifth - and best - year collecting cash and nonperishables at all three base gate during the morning's arrival traffic.

"The charity work is wonderful to see - anytime of year, but it really warms my heart to see that the military members – who come from places all across Canada - feel at home in whatever community they are posted in," Santa said. "Greenwood is a great place to work, but it's also a great place to live."

That was CIS Flight Master Warrant Officer Rod Colbourne's thought, too, as his family arrived here in 2021 from a military posting in Colorado.

"They were doing a food bank drive there," Colbourne said. He also had experience on an earlier posting at 8 Wing Trenton, where aerospace telecommunications and information systems technicians coordinated an annual food drive; "so we started one here - and then my wife and I actually joined the food bank volunteer

"Becoming part of the community and giving back is important. It's especially important with a lot of us military members at smaller bases around the country, where we really are such a big part of the community."

CIS Flight's now-annual December food drive is the tip of the 14 Wing's charitable iceberg. Santa keeps a list: 14 Fire Emergency Services' annual Muscular Dystrophy boot drive; the image technicians' offer to take military family portraits for food bank donations; the wing cleaners, who collect refundables and add up the cashed-in deposits; the admin pool's Overarching the many smaller activities across 14 Wing is Combined Charities, the base's coordinated workplace giving program. Military and civilian unit representatives volunteer to organize annual fundraiser to support people on the base are doing 50/50 draws, collect casual

Their efforts happen year-long, but 'tis the season: a Christmas craft fair earlier in November and December 6's marquee Festival of Trees raffle at the Greenwood Mall raises the bulk of Combined Charities' event funds. # HOLIDAY MESSAGE A CHRISTMAS VACATION AT THE WING AT THE WING

This holiday season, as we look back on an extraordinary year at 14 Wing, we couldn't help but take inspiration from National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation. Much like Clark Griswold launching into the holidays with optimism, a questionable plan, and a tree far too large for any living room, we charged into 2025 with big ambitions, even bigger enthusiasm, and the determination to make this year "a real beaut, Clark!"

And thanks to you, it was.

Your professionalism and mission focus delivered reliable airpower day in and day out, no matter what surprises came our way. From responding to nearly 100 urgent search and rescue missions, to supporting Op LENTUS during this summer's wildfires, to executing long-range patrol missions at home and abroad, you demonstrated the same persistence Clark needed to get those 25,000 lights finally switched on. Every sortie, every deployment, every moment of teamwork added another bright bulb to 14 Wing's success.

None of this would have been possible without the entire 14 Wing Defence Team. Just as Clark had Cousin Eddie roll up unannounced in the RV, we've had our own cast of characters across the Wing step forward at critical moments. Operations, maintenance, mission support, community services, training, force development, families, and our community partners — each contributed to a year defined by resilience, commitment, and our motto: Operate as One.

2025 also marked significant steps into the future of Canadian airpower. We continued preparing for major capability transitions, including the CP-8A Poseidon, CQ-9B Guardian RPAS, and the introduction of the CC-295 Kingfisher.

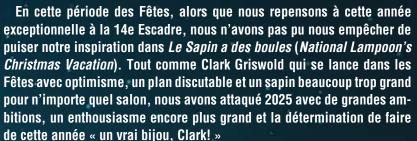

To the entire team: thank you for your leadership, your sense of duty, and the camaraderie that makes 14 Wing such an exceptional place to serve. As we enjoy the holidays, please keep in your thoughts those deployed or away from home. May your celebrations be warm, safe, and – unlike the Griswold household – relatively chaos-free

And if anyone asks how things went at 14 Wing this year, feel free to say with confidence...

"It's a beaut, Clark!"

Happy Holidays, 14 Wing! Operate as One

MESSAGE DES FÊTES DE LA 14e ESCADRE WACANCES DE NOEL A L'ESCADRE A L'ESCADRE

Et grâce à vous, ce fut le cas.

Votre professionnalisme et votre sens de la mission ont permis de générer une puissance aérienne fiable jour après jour, peu importe les surprises qui se sont présentées. Qu'il s'agisse de répondre à près de 100 missions urgentes de recherche et sauvetage, de soutenir l'opération LENTUS lors des feux de forêt de cet été, ou de mener des missions de patrouille à longue portée au pays et à l'étranger, vous avez fait preuve de la même persévérance que Clark lorsqu'il tentait enfin d'allumer ses 25 000 lumières. Chaque sortie, chaque déploiement, chaque moment de travail d'équipe a ajouté une nouvelle ampoule brillante au succès de la 14e Escadre.

Rien de tout cela n'aurait été possible sans l'ensemble de l'Équipe de la Défense de la 14e Escadre. Tout comme Clark a vu Cousin Eddie débarquer sans prévenir avec son VR, nous avons eu notre propre galerie de personnages à travers l'Escadre qui se sont présentés aux moments critiques. Les opérations, la maintenance, le soutien aux missions, les services communautaires, l'instruction, le développement de la force, les familles et nos partenaires communautaires — chacun a contribué à une année définie par la résilience, l'engagement et notre devise: Unis dans l'action.

L'année 2025 a également marqué des étapes importantes pour l'avenir de la puissance aérienne canadienne. Nous avons poursuivi les préparatifs pour de grandes transitions capacitaires, notamment le CP-8A Poseidon, le CQ-9B Guardian (système d'aéronef télépiloté), ainsi que l'introduction du CC-295 Kingfisher.

À toute l'équipe : merci pour votre leadership, votre sens du devoir et le caractère exceptionnel de la camaraderie, tout ce qui fait de la 14e Escadre un endroit remarquable où servir. Pendant que nous célébrons les Fêtes, gardons en pensée ceux et celles qui sont déployés ou loin de leurs proches. Que vos célébrations soient chaleureuses, sécuritaires et – contrairement à la maison des Griswold – relativement exemptes de chaos.

Et si quelqu'un vous demande comment l'année s'est déroulée à la 14e Escadre, vous pourrez répondre avec confiance...

« C'est un bijou, Clark! »

Joyeuses Fêtes, 14e Escadre! Unis dans l'action

RICHARD, Lieutenant (Navy) (retired)

Mary "Regina" Patricia RN, CD

Middleton, NS

Born in St John's NL August 3, 1944, died in Middleton

NS November 26, 2025. Despite Regina's tiny stature,

she had a powerful presence of kindness and compassion for everyone she knew. She graduated from Saint Clare's

School of Nursing in St John's, NL, and embarked on her lifelong career in nursing. She was a veteran, having served as a nursing officer in the Canadian Navy from 1976 to 1998 in Ottawa, Gagetown, Halifax, Greenwood and Cornwallis, and was primary nurse on hundreds of military medical mercy flights. Her love language was food! She served wonderful meals to those she loved and enjoyed entertaining in and beside her swimming pool. Those who knew her simply loved the bones of her. She is survived by her much beloved children

Robert Wilson Roy (Tabitha Louise Riley), and Amanda

Marie Acker (Douglas) and siblings Dr. Tom Dunne

(Sharon), Carbonear, NL; Gerald Dunne, Toronto, ON;

Ron Dunne (Bev), East Chezzetcook NS; Barbara (the late Bill) Bryson, Cole Harbour, NS; Maureen (Don)

Skinner, Carbonear, NL; Robert (Lynn Hua Luan)

Dunne, BC; David Dunne (Joy), St. John's, NL; several nieces and nephews, and so many loyal friends. She was predeceased by her husband, Sergeant (retired)

Ian George Richard, CD; parents Thomas P. Dunne and

Mary Cecilia Tremblett Dunne, and little brother Brian Dunne. Regina's Roman Catholic faith was central in her life. She died praying her Rosary, with her children by her side. She will rest in everlasting peace and rise in glory. Stand down, Regina. Your work is done. Fair winds and following seas. Expressions of sympathy may be sent to her children, Amanda Acker, 21 Young

New program offers free glasses to N.S. children

tion of Optometrists (NSAO) recently announced the launch of Eye See, Eye Learn, a program which provides free glasses to children in primary and pre-primary in Nova Scotia.

Even though eye exams are covered by MSI every two years for children under the age of 10, recent data has found only one out of seven Nova Scotia children in primary and preprimary see their optometrist regularly for a checkup. Many serious eye conditions don't have any symptoms. This means, by the time people experience visual difficulties, the condition may have already advanced to a level where may be found @novascotiaopit can no longer be treated.

The Nova Scotia Associa- The Canadian Association of Optometrists recommends children have their first eve examination between six and nine months old

> To access the Eye See, Eye Learn program, Sponsored by the Essilor Foundation, Modern Optical, and the NSAO; children must be in primary or pre-primary, have a valid Nova Scotia MSI card and be found to need glasses during an eye examination with a participating optometrist. More information about the program and participating optometrists may be found at healthyvisionhealthykids. com. ## Over water effort

Search and rescue technicians of 413 (Transport and Rescue) Squadron were in the air, over the water – and in the water east of Halifax November 14 to 21, tackling an extraction training sequence aboard a Canadian Coast Guard vessel. Regular "boat camp" sessions are opportunities to practice maritime extraction, small-craft operations and rescue readiness tasks; often with Coast Guard and other SAR partners. In this one week, crews completed 488 training sequences through over 84 flying hours. For a video, visit https:// youtu.be/uNohwddj9-Y Aviator Cailyn Wilcox, 14 Wing Imaging

WASTE ON BASE

After putting out an abundance of information, the problem with the dumpsters continues.

- Plastic/ metal go in a separate clear bag together
- Paper/ cardboard go in a separate clear bag together
- Garbage goes in a separate clear bag
- Compost goes in a compost bin

DÉCHETS SUR LA BASE

Malgré la diffusion d'une multitude d'informations, le problème des bennes à ordures persiste.

- Les plastique et les métaux doivent être placés ensemble dans un sac transparent séparé
- Le papier et le carton doivent être placés ensemble dans un sac transparent séparé
- Les déchets doivent être placés dans un sac transparent séparé
- Les déchets compostables doivent être placés dans un bac à compost
